Shooting Into an Occupied Vehicle
Improper Display/Exhibition of Firearm

WHEN: 02/11/18 @ 0043 hours

WHERE: 19365 Wiscon Rd. (Murphy USA / Walmart)

NARRATIVE: On the above date and time, Brooksville Police Officers responded to the Murphy USA Gas Station in reference to a shooting. The investigation revealed that Jennifer Snell was in a verbal argument with an acquaintance of hers at the gas station. Snell brandished a handgun causing the other party to flee in his vehicle. Snell fired several rounds into the back of the vehicle as it drove away. Snell then chased the victim in her vehicle and rammed the victim's car twice in the parking lot of Wal-Mart. The victim's car was also occupied by two other people who provided sworn statements. Brooksville Police Detectives conducted a thorough investigation, including interviews with Snell, who admitted the offense and assisted in recovering the firearm used during the offense, a Glock 9mm, legally owned and possessed by Snell.

On 02/12/18, Snell was arrested and charged with 3 counts of Aggravated Assault with a firearm, 3 counts of Aggravated Assault with a vehicle, Shooting into an Occupied Vehicle and improper display of a firearm. She was transported to the Hernando County Jail and held on $63,000 bond.
